Myrtle Beach, SC - Those attending this year's Fire Rescue Conference will have an opportunity to meet Miss South Carolina USA, Sarah Weishuhn, who has joined the CODE 3 FOR A CURE (C3FAC) cause in its ongoing efforts to fight the war on firefighter cancer.

Says Ms. Weishuhn, "I am so honored to stand behind and give my full support to Code 3 for a Cure. As a daughter of a throat cancer survivor, as well as a daughter of a past firefighter, this organization is incredibly close to my heart. These men and women risk their lives on a moment's notice and I am in awe of their unfailing strength. I wish all the best to these firefighters and this incredible organization on their mission to assist firefighters across the nation who are battling cancer."

"We are honored to welcome Miss South Carolina USA to the team," says Lorenzo Abundiz, President & Founder of C3FAC. "She is a true Fire Warrior of hope & honor because she is working to call attention to the alarming rate of cancer among firefighters, as well as the C3FAC cause to support firefighters who are battling the disease."
